St. Seraphim Camper Rules

1. All Campers will respect each other with Christian respect at all times, therefore fighting, put-downs or other behavior harmful to others is not allowed at camp.

2. There will be no camper out of his or her campsite after curfew. No exceptions. Any camper caught outside if his or her campsite without a very good reason and an adult staff member's knowledge will be assigned a duty or risk expulsion from camp.

3. No electronic devices will be allowed for campers - no radios, game machines, televisions, cell phones, iPods, night vision goggles, etc. Cell phones may be kept in the camp office and used with permission only. The only battery-operated devices permitted are flashlights and cameras.

4. Any unapproved electronic devices will be confiscated and kept in the camp office, tagged with the owner's name and address. The camp is not responsible for any such devices, but an effort will be made to return the device to the parent of the camper.

5. All property must be respected: no graffiti and no destructive raiding.

6. DRESS CODE: All clothing must be modest and in good taste.
   - All shirts should cover the stomach
   - Undergarments should not be visible
   - Shorts should not be too short (fingertip length is usually acceptable)
   - Swimsuits should be one-piece or have a t-shirt on top – boys may not leave swimming areas without shirts on
   - No spaghetti straps, strapless shirts or dresses
   - No clothing should have inappropriate slogans
   - Dress shirts must be modestly buttoned
   - Boys should remove any piercings
   - Tattoos should be covered
   - Church attire is pants and dress shirts for boys, modest (at least knee-length) dresses or skirts for girls.
   - For other formal attire (such as the dance), the same requirements apply to shirts, skirts, and dresses.

Some examples of dress code violations:

7. Campers must have a "buddy" with them at all times. No campers should be away from their group alone.
8. It is mandatory that campers participate in scheduled activities unless there is a legitimate reason, to be determined by the Camp Director, for them not to.
9. The following are forbidden from campgrounds, possession of which will result in immediate contact with parents and dismissal from camp: alcohol, drugs, tobacco, firearms or other weapons, and any flammable substances.
